

Election Info NBMBA-Twin Cities

* Required

2019 Election Information NBMBA-Twin Cities

This is the sample ballot of the official electronic ballot for the 2019 board elections of the National Black MBA Twin Cities Chapter. All positions listed on the sample ballot are open for candidates. There is a short description to describe the basic duties of each board position. If you have any questions, please send an email to nmbaa.membership.tc@gmail.com.

1. President *

Serves as Chief Executive of the organization. Creates the vision and strategies with the leadership team. Represents the chapter for National Black MBA and external events. Approves annual strategic plans, operating budgets and purchases.

Mark only one oval.

Candidate A

2. Vice President of Administration *

Responsible for the administrative efforts of the organization. This includes annual reporting, strategic planning, records retention, legal, compliance, chapter elections and meeting minutes.

Mark only one oval.

Candidate A

3. Vice President of Operations *

Responsible for community relations, board develop (training, development, recruiting, and retention) and fundraising.

Mark only one oval.

Candidate A

4. Vice President of Finance/Treasurer *

Responsible for financial reporting, fundraising, submitting financial reports, updating 501C status, filing taxes and/or audits. Other duties include invoicing, reimbursements, and purchasing.

Mark only one oval.

Candidate A

5. Vice President of Communications *

Responsible for communications strategy and execution. Key components of communication strategy include: public relations, social media, newsletter, marketing, collateral, and event invitations.

Mark only one oval.

Candidate A

6. Director of Education/Leaders of Tomorrow (LOT) *

Responsible for the relationship management with education institutions and the leadership of the Leaders of Tomorrow (LOT) mentorship program and case competition.

Mark only one oval.

Candidate A

7. Director of Programs *

Responsible for the development and execution of the annual programming plan. The programming plan may include the following event types: professional development, social, community service, fundraising, and career fairs.

Mark only one oval.

Candidate A

8. Director of Membership *

Responsible for the annual membership meeting and the growth, retention, and engagement with all levels of chapter membership.

Mark only one oval.

Candidate A

9. Director of Corporate Relations *

Responsible for building and maintaining key corporate relationships with diverse organizations and opinion leaders. Efforts focus on forming strategic alliances within diverse segments of the Twin Cities professional climate, corporate partners and civic organizations to garner membership support and promote awareness of our outstanding diverse employee population.

Mark only one oval.

Candidate A

10. Director of Technology *

Responsible for maintaining and updating the chapter website (uploading pictures, calendar of events, capturing potential members), recommendation for technology upgrades, electronic payment methods, hardware/software, and multimedia.

Mark only one oval.

Candidate A